The mission of the organisation	We are a non-profit organisation dedicated to fighting for people's rights and promoting a more just and supportive society. Our focus is on people in situations of or at risk of social exclusion, women victims of gender violence, people who have suffered homophobic and transphobic violence, women victims of trafficking and/or sexual exploitation, migrants, children, youth, prisoners and ex-prisoners, and assistance to refugees.
How do we intent to get involved in a possible CS project.	We are a very close-knit and hard-working team that, apart from doing things the right way, we do with respect and good practice. We think that we can offer a different point of view when working and carrying out activities, with respect to other countries. On the other side the participation in the project will allow us to learn and disseminate knowledge inside our team. All this combined with a long experience in different projects and areas, allows us to work with a good dynamic, a pleasant attitude and above all showing great collaboration between everyone, giving rise to a pleasant and successful work environment, thus obtaining a safe place where we can express ourselves freely. As the great Virginia Wolf said "There is no barrier, lock or latch that you can impose on the freedom of my mind."

The mission of the organisation	The Greek Forum of Refugees (GFR) is a refugee-led organization and a network of refugee and migrant communities and dedicated individuals advocating for the rights of refugees, migrants, and those affected by statelessness. Our mission is to promote an inclusive society where people with refugee and migrant backgrounds actively participate in all levels of society with equal rights and responsibility. Founded by refugees, for refugees, with refugees, GFR acts as a bridge between refugee/migrant communities and the host societies, facilitating effective inclusion and integration through self-advocacy, capacity-building, and raising awareness. Its core philosophy is committing to the principles of non-discrimination, mutual respect, and acceptance of every different identity. The organization aspires to promote in the best possible way an inclusive and democratic society with harmonious coexistence of all, both in Greece and Europe. Experience in Addressing Gender-Based Violence (GBV) and LGBTQIA+ Violence: GFR's extensive experience as a grassroots organization allows us to directly engage refugee and migrant communities, particularly vulnerable groups such as survivors of gender-based violence (GBV) and LGBTQIA+ individuals. GFR recognizes that these communities face multiple layers of discrimination and violence, both within their countries of origin and upon arrival in host countries like Greece. GFR prioritizes addressing GBV and LGBTQIA+ issues across all its activities, whether through grassroots engagement with communities and newcomers, collaboration with other CSOs, or advocacy efforts aimed at strengthening protections and improving frameworks at both the national and EU levels.

How do we intent to get involved in a possible CS project.	Future Plans and Commitment to Tackling GBV and LGBTQIA+ Violence: As part of our ongoing mission, GFR is committed to deepening its work in addressing GBV and violence against LGBTQIA+. Our future plans include: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Scaling up our Self-Advocacy Initiative to reach more refugee reception centers and communities. 2. Increasing community engagement through campaigns and workshops aimed at challenging harmful stereotypes, promoting gender equality, and fostering acceptance of diverse sexual orientations and identities. 3. Strengthening partnerships with NGOs, local authorities, and European organizations to ensure survivors of GBV and LGBTQIA+ violence have access to comprehensive support services. 4. Continuing our policy advocacy work, collecting testimonies, and pushing for more inclusive, effective protection for vulnerable communities at national and EU levels.
